July 3, 2018

Greetings in the Name of Our Savior Jesus Christ,

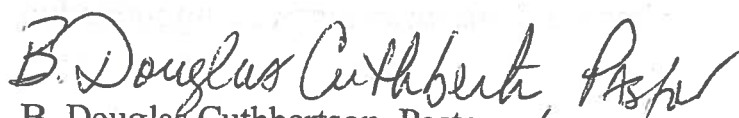

It is our pleasure to invite you and your church fellowship to join us as we celebrate one hundred and nineteen years of church history on July 22, 2018. God has prospered us with another year of church life, and as we move forward in praise, worship, and celebration, we are including a schedule of events. We will kick off our time of joyous reunion and remembrance of years gone by with an expectant future with our morning worship.

The 11:00 a.m. morning Worship Service will be led by Rev. Darius Curry of Kings Mountain, NC. Immediately following our morning service we will host our time of food and fellowship in our historical Founders Hall. Upon the conclusion of our meal we will share in our 3 p.m. afternoon Worship Service with Pastor Tommy Carpenter and the Third Creek Baptist Church family of Stoney Point, NC.

Our guest Revivalist, Rev. Carrington Carter of The Sanctuary at Kingdom Square in Capital Heights, MD will share July 23- July 25, 2018, beginning each night at 7 pm. The messages will inspire hope, victory, and God's power to change lives for an eternity. Our prayers are that you will find time to share with us in our special moment within the life of the Chambers Chapel Missionary Baptist Church.

If you are unable to join us, we request that your fellowship would faithfully and prayerfully stand with us as we seek God for His word, His witness, and His will to be prominent and present in the lives of His people.

In His Service,

B. Douglas Cuthbertson, Pastor
